Julietta Suzuki, the Thai novels Because We are Together by JittiRain and Tharntype's Story by Orawan Vichayawannakul, and the Korean webtoon "True Beauty". Recommendations were prepared by Gayathri Muraleedharan, Dona Mariya Thomas, and Kavya Rajesh of III BA English.

On 20 Feb 2021, there was a discussion of influential women authors in the history of English literature, including Maya Angelou, JK Rowling, Alice Walker, SE Hinton, Agatha Christie, Laura Ingalls Wilder, Harper Lee, Jane Austen, Emily Dickinson, Louisa May Alcott, Mary Shelley, George Eliot, Emily Bronte, Charlotte Bronte, Virginia Woolf, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Ayn Rand, Margaret Mitchell, Edith Wharton, and Zora Neale Hurston.

In March 2021, Bookscape celebrated the International Women's History Month by honouring powerful women writers, their works, and female characters in literature through a series of videos prepared by students, released on the official YouTube channel of the Department of English, under the title "Choose to Challenge." Students who participated included:

I BA English: Sarin Sebastian, Rose Maria P Stephen, Anagha T, Anasooya Thorakkattu, Fidha Sherin, Anupama Bassanio, Devika M, Krishna Prethweraj, Devika K

II BA English: Nandana Jayaprakash, Chitragada KP, Sneha Prasad

Apart from these activities, students and faculty members regularly shared brief reviews and recommendations of books they were currently reading, and engaged in lively discussions on various authors. Students were encouraged to make use of various e-library facilities, including DigiDrive, the e-books archive created by the IQAC of the college,

Film club

JUNE

To keep the club active during the covid 19 standstill that locked down the campus, a Telegram channel, named PROVI NEW WAVE was launched on June 23 2020. Most of the students and faculty of the college joined as members.

It was inaugurated by the college Principal Dr. Sr. Ashmitha. A.C. Felicitations came from Malayalam film industry through renowned director Ranjith and actor Guinness Pakru. Each week a "Movie of the Week" is posted and each month, a "Movie of the Month" is selected, on which a panel discussion is conducted by the end of the month.

JULY

The movies Sound of music, Lawrence of Arabia, Forrest Gump, and The Godfather were posted by students in charge, Anitta Bella and Fida subair. Award winning Lebanese movie Capernaum was posted as the movie of the month. The panel discussion on the same had Nandana Jayaprakash, Nayanthara Thilak, Noura Rasheed, Chithrangadha K.P and Fathima Riluvana as participants on July 10 2020.

AUGUST

The recent release Shankuntala Devi was chosen by Hanan Ashraf of 3rd English as the movie of the month. Panel discussion on the same ensued new ventures - Docudrama Day and Cliffhangers -sprang into being. Cliffhangers focussed on posting gripping, sensational movies every week. Docudrama day, observed once a month, involved posting movies based on real stories and events. The venture was introduced by Nayana Alphonsa and Mufeeda of II PG. The movies posted as Cliffhangers were Bad Genius, Love Sonia, Searching, The Ghazi Attack and Mardani 2. The youtube link to the movies were also shared in the channel by Nayana Alphonsa. The movie Gunjan Saxena: The Kargil Girl by Sharan Sharma was chosen as the movie of the month as part of the Docudrama Day by Mufeeda. The panel discussion on the same was held on 28th of September from 7 pm to 8pm. The panelists Rishika , Sneha, Neeraja and Mufeeda paved for a thought provoking session on analysing the movie and discussing the role of men in upbringing women in her personal and professional life.

OCTOBER

A new initiative 'Reel Markers' focused on important milestones in world cinema. The bulletins were posted by Devika S Praveen of 3rd English. The movies Sully, Her, Knives Out, The Pink Panther, Coherence was posted as the movie of the week by Gayathri Nambiar of 2nd English. The Federation of Film Societies of India, Kerala organized the 4th Online Classic Movie Festival from October 21-27 and the links were shared in the channel. The classics showcased included Battleship Potemkin, The Great Dictator, Bicycle Thieves, Seven Samurai, Hiroshima Mon Amour, Two- Half times in hell and Vagabond. Anvita Dutt's strikingly feminist paranormal fable ' Bulbull' was chosen as the movie the month by Nayanthara Thilak of 2nd English. The month of November was marked by an exciting panel discussion on the movie 'Bulbull'. The objective of the discussion was to decode the different shades that make up a woman by analyzing the character of Bulbull. The discussion was scheduled on the 7th of November from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. The moderator was Nayanthara Tilak of 2nd English and the panelists included Nandana Jayaprakash, Sandra Ajith and Chitrangatha of 2nd English who agreed on the point that the least you can do to make the world livable is to see a woman as nothing but a human being.

NOVEMBER

The channel paid homage to the legendary actor, Soumitra Chatterjee, through an instalment of his movies with the programme 'Remembering Soumitra Chatterjee'. A few of his memorable roles were highlighted and the line-up included movies like Apur Sansar, Mayurakshi, Sonar Kella, Akash Kusum, Charulatha, Abhijan and Dekha which were posted over the week by Greeshma Antony of 3rd English. A podcast in remembrance of Fernando Solanas who had passed earlier the month, titled 'Fernando Solanas and Third Cinema' was aired through anchor. Eminent film scholar Dr. C.S. Venkiteswaran paid tribute to the Argentinian director with an overview of his films and a special reference to the manifesto jointly written by Solanas and Octavio Getino 'Towards a third cinema.' The podcast was subsequently archived on anchor under the repository of audio lectures on literary and cultural studies. Owing to the spotlight garnered by its nomination, a special mention was made on the Malayalam movie Jallikattu and was posted in the channel. The channel also observed the demise of the famed Academy Award-winning Italian filmmaker Bernardo Bertolucci.

DECEMBER

The channel activities honoured an array of remarkable transgender movies. The movies Danish Girl, Boys don't cry, Njan Marykutty, All about my mother and Laurence Anyways were posted as the movie of the week by Greeshma Antony of 3rd English. The channel also memorialized the famed South Korean director Kim Ki-Duk who passed away earlier the month due to coronavirus complications. An initiative titled 'Weekly Top five: The best of Kim Ki-Duk' was introduced and Kim's marvelous directions like Pieta, 3-Iron, The Bow, Breath and Spring, Summer, Fall, Winter and Spring were posted over the week. Geethu Mohandas's acclaimed drama Moothon was chosen as the movie of the week by Arunima A of 3rd English. The panel discussion on the same was held on 2nd of January from 7pm to 8.30pm. The moderator Arunima A and panelists Anagha P M, Ann Maria Fernandes, Devika S Praveen and Rahiya K paved for an enlivening session on Moothon as a progressive piece of artwork addressing the gender spectrum with the theme of sex and love. The prime goal of the discourse was to appreciate the path breaking and realistic depiction of non-binary relationship, which was never before dealt in the Malayalam film industry with such compassion.

JANUARY

The movie of the month 'Into the Wild' was posted by Nandana Jayaprakash of II BA English. On the 21st of January, the channel commemorated the 100-year anniversary of 'The Kid', Charlie Chaplin's first full-length feature and artistic milestone. To keep in the spirit of the 72nd Republic Day, the channel dedicated the week to patriotic movies. The movies were compiled by Greeshma Antony and Arunima A. of III BA English. The movies Rang De Bastani, Airlift, Kaalapani, URI: The surgical strike, Lagaan, Raazi and Border were posted.

FEBRUARY

The film club in the month of February witnessed a passionate line up of romantic titles. Amrutha and Geethika of I PG English were in charge of the club activities and the movies Flipped and Letters to Juliet were posted as the movie of the week. The much-anticipated Valentine's Day watch list was posted on the 14th with the gems like Amelie, Brokeback Mountain and Blue Valentine making it to the list. Adding to the charm of Valentine's, the Global Movie Day fell on the 13th of the month. To celebrate the day, the core members posted their favourite picks and recommendations. The movies posted were Your Name by Gayathri Nambiar, Children of Heaven by Greeshma Antony, Shoplifters by Anjali Soman, Bohemian Rhapsody by Arunima A, Get Out by Amrutha and Ratatouille by Devika S Praveen.

MARCH

The 78th edition of the Golden Globe Awards was held virtually on 1st of March and some of the best content on TV and cinema were honoured. The coveted award-winning movies were posted in the group which included the soulful road drama "Nomadland" which won the best drama motion picture, the poignant masterpiece Minari which won the best foreign language film and Borat Subsequent Movie film which won the best comedy motion picture. To celebrate the International Women's Day, we compiled a list of inspiring films that celebrate the passion and resilience of independent women - Offside, The Breadwinner, Erin Brockovich and Indian feminist blockbusters Thappad, Neerja and Pink. The list was compiled by Greeshma Antony and the duties were taken up by Krishna Prethwraj and Vishnupriya P of I BA English. The striking feminist tale Hidden Figures and Edie were posted as movie of the week. The stirring 1985 drama film 'The Colour Purple' based on the Pulitzer prize-winning 1982 novel by Alice Walker was selected as the movie of the month. A panel discussion for the same was held on March 30. The moderator Krishna Prethwraj and panelists Devika k Nair, Anupama Bassiano, Vishnupriya P and Aysha Heba of I BA English analysed the female friendships as a means for women to summon the courage to tell their stories. The session highlighted how the relationships among women in the movie form a refuge, providing reciprocal love in a world filled with male violence. The panellists stressed the importance of such networks of female friends who wage a potent challenge to dominate over the patriarchal structure in the movie.

APRIL

As summer revelled in the sun-soaked memories of seasons past, we decided to dedicate the month to some ultimate summer flicks to boost our moods. Krishna Prethwraj and Vishnupriya P continued the month's duties. Luca Guadagnino's 2017 coming-of-age romantic drama film Call me by your name garnered as a simmering, sensual ode to irresistible attraction, first love & heartache was chosen as the movie of the month. The Social Dilemma and the Before Trilogy were posted as the movies of the week. The panel discussion for the movie 'Call me by your name' was held on 29th April. Led by Vishnupriya. The panelists were Anupama Bassiano, Chrisilna Cleetus and Anagha of I BA English and Sneha of I BBA . There was an overwhelming consensus during the discussion as to how the film, a beautiful meandering travelogue, does complete justice to Aciman's beautiful writings casting an unbreakable spell on anyone who watches it.

MAY

As life became an indoor hustle, the channel availed to films clamoring to offer a virtual dose of nature. The emotive watch list suggestions drenched with nature were posted by Vishnupriya P and Krishna Prethwraj of I BA English. Rima Das's follow-up to her acclaimed Village Rockstars 'The Bulbull can sing' was posted as the movie of the week. The unchained coming-of-age melody is set once again amidst the emerald-hued beauty of rural Assam, where nature casts a spell that humans can be counted on to shatter. Greg McLean's Jungle, a true-life survival thriller based on Israeli adventurer Yossi Ghinsberg's 1981 journey to the Amazon rainforest, was also posted. Filmmaker Praveen Morchhale's riveting exploration of ruined lives in a mesmerizing landscape of Kashmir, 'Widow of Silence' which takes a searing look at the lives of the so-called half-widows in Kashmir and the people left behind in a conflict zone was also posted. With 154 subscribers the telegram channel Provi New Wave completes its first year of virtual film appreciation and culture.
